

LIFE-CET-PDA

TOMISLAV NOVOSEL

REGEA

Quick Facts

- Name: Croatian district heating sector support facility
- Topic: LIFE-2021-CET-PDA
- Duration: 48 months
- Start Date: 1 November 2022
- Final Date: 31 October 2026
- Total budget: €1 927 471,25
- EU Contribution: €1 831 097,68
- Consortium: 7 Partners, Croatia

Objective

The general project objective of the D2Heat project is to develop, establish and implement a long-term and systematic support mechanism for the modernization of Croatia's district heating sector both in terms of heat generation and distribution.

Technical partners

- REGEA – Coordinator
- Croatian Chamber of Economy
- Avelant

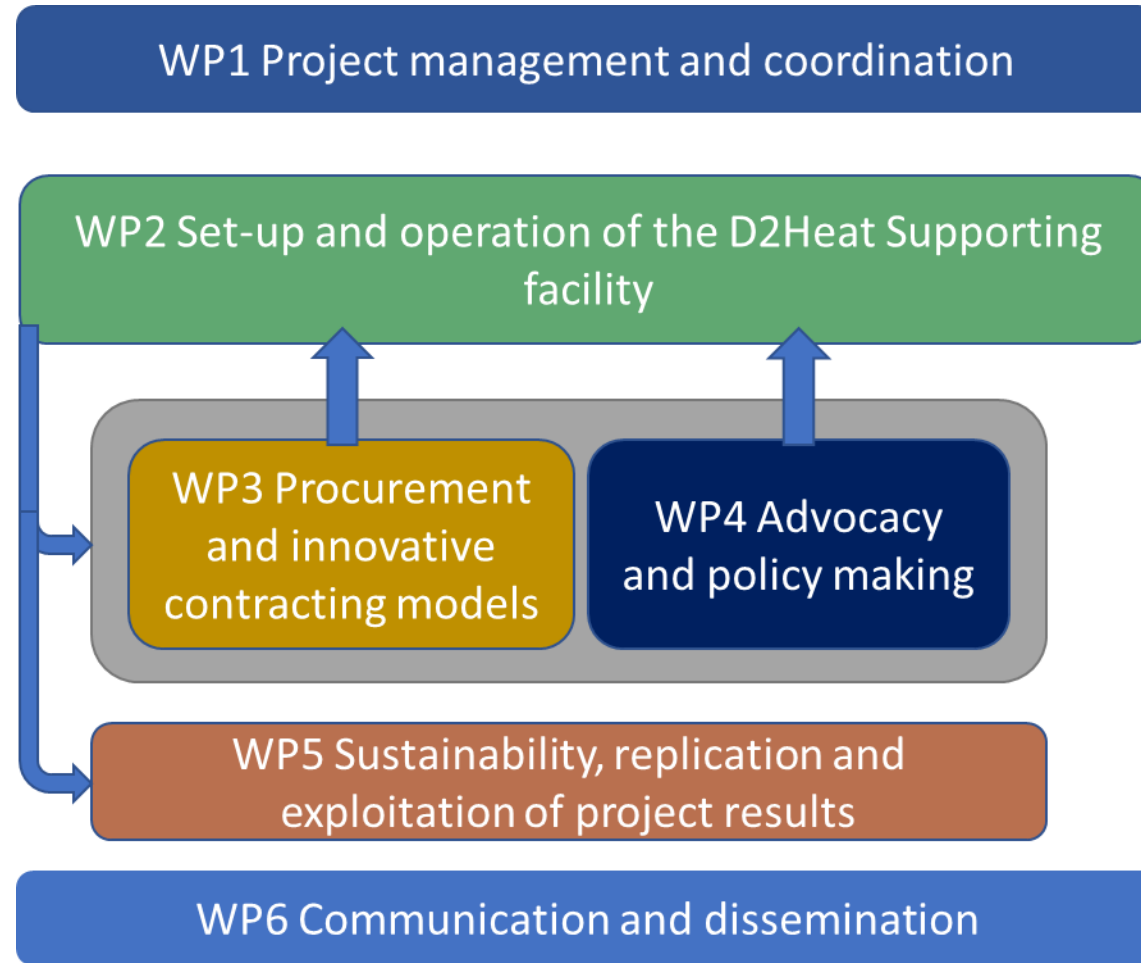

DH operators

- HEP Toplinarstvo
- Gradska toplana
- Energo
- Brod plin

Specific objectives

1. Set-up and operation of a Support facility for the Croatian District heating sector
2. Advanced funding, procurement and financing models
3. Advocacy for positive policy changes
4. Development and preparation of projects for funding and financing

Targets and impacts

- The project aims to mobilise investments into renewable energy production and energy efficiency in the Croatian district heating sector
 - New heat production facilities
 - Heat storage
 - Refurbishment of existing grids
 - Control and regulation
 - Aggregation of systems
- Leverage factor of at least 15!

D2Heat

TOMISLAV NOVOSEL

tnovosel@regea.org

